	The Darwin Club, as part of the well-established and historically recognized Admiralty House, is a unique dining experience in the Northern Territory.
	The restaurant is located in a stunning position overlooking the leafy ground of the Admiralty House, the Esplanade, and further out, the multiple shades of blue of the Arafura Sea.
	The venue has an atmosphere of relaxed elegance, perpetuating the legacy of the oldest club in Darwin. The wooden floors, high ceilings, velvet seats and yesteryear photographs will swoop you through the ages, to the 1930 era, Darwin early days. Put time on pause, come and dine with us. We will ravish your senses with a menu crafted to highlight the exceptional produce that we so carefully source.

Afternoon Experiences	Tourism NT have arranged a 2.5 hour walking tour after the RoundTable, to showcase the city, starting at 2.30pm from the Convention Centre Tour Description (by https://walkdarwin.com.au/) Join Walk Darwin for a bespoke exploration of Darwin's street art. From the Convention Centre, you'll be guided up into the city. Along the way learn how today's street art rose from the New York City graffiti scene to the majestic murals that adorn Darwin today. Your guide will point out award-winning masterpieces and bring some of the murals to life before your eyes with augmented reality (AR). As you meander through city laneways, hear stories of the artists who have participated in the many Darwin Street Art festivals and see a number of their artworks, learning about the different techniques used to take them from vision to reality. Included is a short refreshment break at a local café with time to show your favorite pics to everyone.
